HALLMARK 1983

DEDICATION

The 1983 Hallmark staff would like to dedicate the yearbook to a friend with many names, not to mention many talents. The faculty know her as Carol, the students know her as Mrs. Lubo, the Rowland Hall-St. Mark's community know her as Carol Lubomudrov, and University of Utah students know her as Dr. Lubomudrov, adjunct professor. No matter what she is called, her name brings to mind the caring and intelligent woman whose return to RHSM we applaud. Welcome back.

FIFTH GRADE FIELD TRIP

Every Friday for four weeks we went to the University of Utah Museum of Natural History to learn about microbiology. Rachel Goldstein took, developed, and printed these pictures, which bring back memories of our fifth grade project at the science museum. We looked through microscopes at specimens such as asparagus, corn stems, onion skin cells, diatoms, hydra, rotifers, many kinds of protozoa, and insect wings and mouth parts. Mr. Shields, our teacher, told us about the use of the microscope and about the slides we saw. He explained the Greek roots of many scientific words. We all took notes. After the last session we went to Snelgrove's for ice cream.

And—we even wrote this copy. Which class will challenge us in the 1984 yearbook?

SIXTH GRADE CAMPING TRIP

The sixth graders' trip to Capitol Reef was cut short because of heavy rains, but the students managed to enjoy themselves and to learn about the plants, animals, geology, and archeology of the desert region. The Fremont Indian petroglyphs were especially interesting, as was the long-abandoned Fruita school house. Early in the year, Ms. Hager and Mrs. Van Hook taught astronomy for the purpose of enhancing the educational nature of the trip. The lectures and demonstrations were fascinating, but the soggy evening skies at Capitol Reef allowed no glimpse of Scorpio. All in all, though, the trip was a success, and the students were excited to read about their excursion in the Salt Lake Tribune.

Look at the stars! look,
look up at the skies!
O look at all the fire-folk

The bright boroughs, the circle-citadels there!
Down in dim woods the
diamond delves! the elves' eyes!
The grey lawns cold, where gold, where quick-gold lies!
Wind-beat whitebeam! airy
ables set on a flare!
Flake-doves sent floating forth at a farmyard scare!—
Ah well! it is all a purchase,
all is a prize.

'TIS A LITTLE JOURNEY

'Tis a little journey
This we walk;
Hardly time for murmurs—
Time for talk.

Yet we learn to quarrel
And to hate;
Afterward regret it
When too late.

Now and then 'tis sunshine—
Sometimes dark;
Sometimes care and sorrow
Leave their mark.

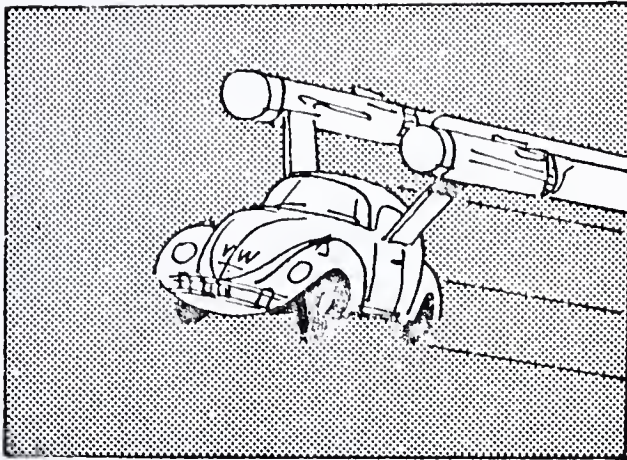

Yet we walk the pathway
Side by side;
Where so many others
Lived and died.

And now let us charge to meet more victories!

徐經緯
(台北大亨)

It's time for us to say goodbye now,
As we are all leaving the school,
Searching for our goals and dreams,
Making them come true:
The memories of your companionship
and the experiences I have had will forever remain in my heart.

We don't know what the future holds for us

—but it'd better be good!

One thing that will almost guarantee
"success"

—don't stop shining that light of yours.

That brilliant light of love, warmth,
friendship,
trust, humour—

There sure will be a day for us to meet again

Let's hope by that time we all have enlightenment in our lives, and more, much more than that—We did it our way.

This is especially dedicated to the Seniors—

You're just at the beginning.

Follow your dreams wherever they go,
And life, itself will let you know.

Just be, be what you are.

Reach out, reach out and take a star.

You've got to live each moment every day.

ACTIVITIES

MUSIC

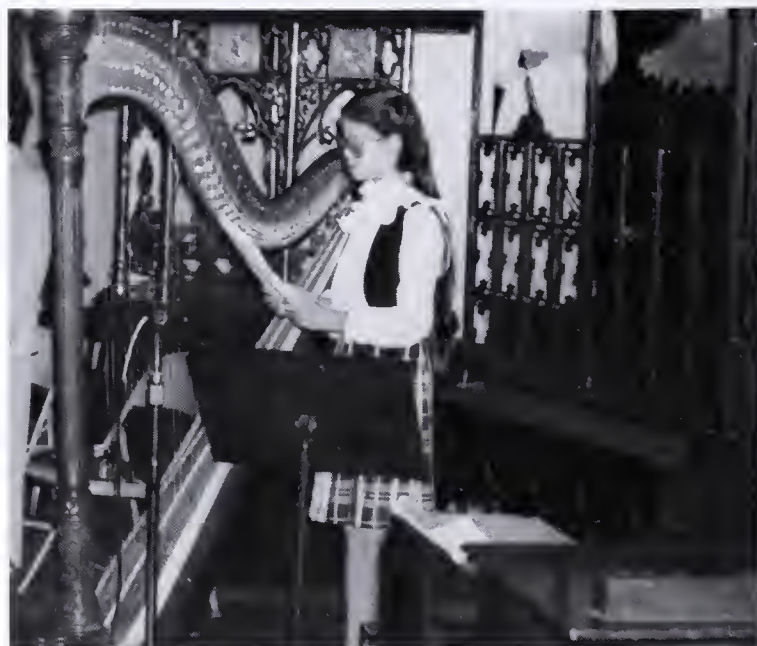

To start the musical year, the music faculty presented a concert of classical works performed by Richard Babcock and Marilyn Melanson. Over one hundred people enjoyed excellent music in the intimate concert hall created in one front hall of the main building. Because Mr. Babcock believes in performance, the various musical ensembles presented concerts twice during the year—one in the fall and another in the spring. The U.S. choir shared their talents with the community by presenting concerts of Christmas music at various shopping centers throughout the valley. As always, the music department added to the school's cultural life by appearing at special events such as Candle and Carol or just by presenting a brief concert in the chapel.

CANDLE AND CAROL

Candle and Carol was held Friday, December 17 at St. Mark's Cathedral. The event, a time for the school community to enjoy both the beauty of the setting and the ceremony of the occasion, has traditionally been a favorite for all involved. Father Walt organized the excellent program. The Reverend Thomas J. Meersman, Rector of the Cathedral of Madeleine, was a special speaker at the service. Other special speakers—Rowland Hall's own—read excerpts from the Bible, while a number of students performed in the choir, wind ensemble, or string ensemble or processed as acolytes. The entire congregation joined in singing a very uplifting selection of carols accompanied by the new Cathedral organist, James N. Naylor.

L.S. STUDENT GOVERNMENT

After very competitive campaigning, four students were elected officers of the Lower School Council. They were President Benjy Smith, Vice President Shannon Brockbank, Secretary Sarah Culp, and Treasurer Rachel Goldstein. Two members from each third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grade class made up the rest of the council which met together every other Tuesday. The L.S. Council sponsored Grubby Days to earn money for library books and computer discs, spearheaded a paper airplane day, and helped with the selection of books for the Book Fair.

U.S. STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The U.S. government, under the leadership of President Ann Denkers and Vice President Jon Morgan, succeeded in rewriting the school constitution, a difficult task, and sponsored a well attended Halloween dance, a not-so-difficult task. Member Suzanne Hoopes, after winning a writing competition, attended the Senate Youth Conference at the Utah State Capitol in October. John Boyle attended the Utah Association of Student Councils' Political Process Workshop held in September, and he and Sam Rogan, accompanied by RHSM newspaper staff member Lee Pembleton, attended the UASC convention in November. Student government was sponsored by Suzanne Olsen.

ROWMARK

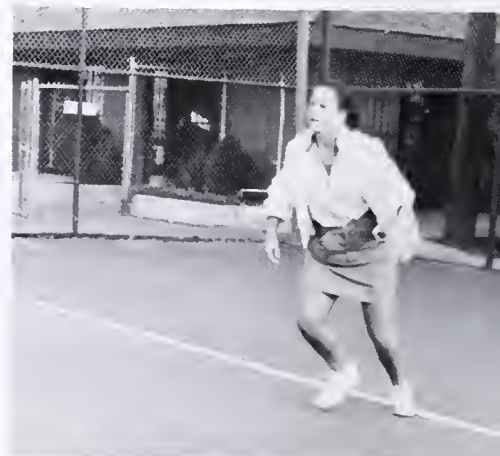

R.H.S.M. started a successful program in 1982 — the Rowmark Ski Academy. Twelve students from throughout the country, under the tutelage of Mr. Olle Larsson, attended academic classes in the training sessions at Solitude in the afternoon. The skiers's success at various Intermountain races was a credit to the school. The students involved were David Movitz, Susie Shane, Richard White, Erin White, Matt Berenson, Spence Eccles, Kristi Terzian, Missy Child, Cindy McLaughlin, Tanya Kjeldsberg.

Joan Ellis, and Heidi Hunter. While participating in the program, they all withstood great pressures to keep up with school work. The idea for Rowmark Academy was conceived by Dr. Carl Kjeldsberg, Dr. Claudia Berenson, and Olle Larsson. The school administration welcomed the program which emphasized both athletics and academics; students participating had to have at least one year's racing experience and had to meet R.H.S.M.'s rigorous academic standards.

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM

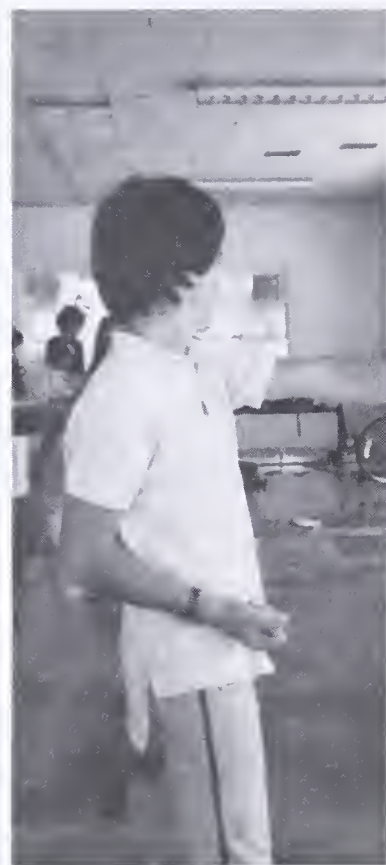

Having played together as a team for only a week before their first match, the girls' tennis team managed to perform well during that and all subsequent matches. The team members, Susan Davis (Captain), Suzanne Hoopes, Diane Knowles, Huong Do, Erin White, Dani Hogle, and Liz McOmber, showed their skill on the court at the Regional Tournament even after spending a sleepless night in Park City. Both doubles teams excelled, and all three singles players placed third. The team wishes to thank Katharine Riker and Pat Ammon for their fine coaching.

VOLLEYBALL

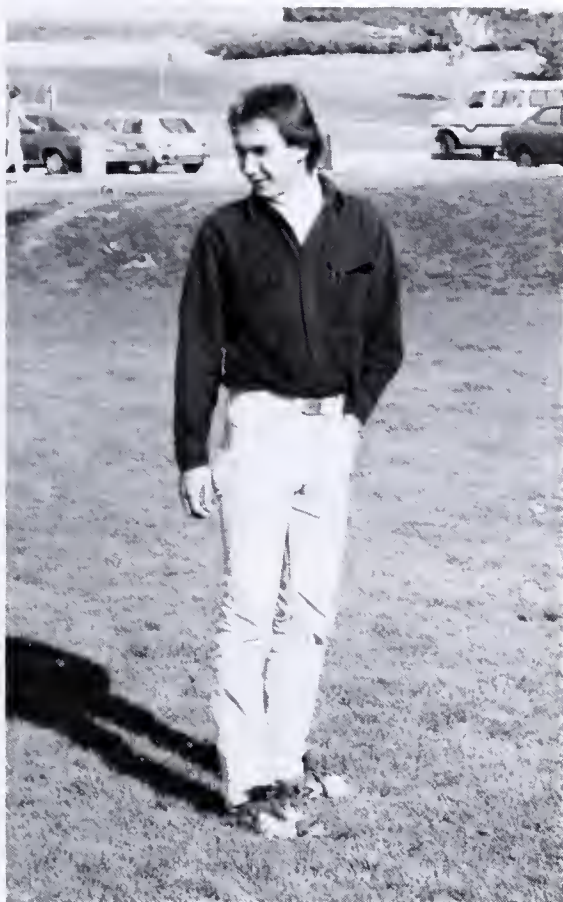

MARTIAL ARTS

Students in karate worked to achieve the goals they set at the beginning of each eight week session. The goals included improved coordination, control, flexibility, and mental discipline. Jeff Gadette, who taught the course, is an excellent teacher. Martial arts proved to be a super "D" block activity.

SOCCER

Soccer, coached by Doug Wortham and Peter Twichell, drew a large number of "D" block students this year. As of this writing, the varsity and the newly formed junior varsity teams are eagerly awaiting spring games. With the inception of a league sponsored by the state, the soccer teams will play other teams on RHSM's skill level. That means fine competition (and real referees).

BIKING

Under the watchful eye of Dennis Coello, the bike club made many treks up City Creek Canyon in preparation for several longer rides into the area surrounding S.L.C. Bikers rode as far east as Morgan and as far west as Antelope Island, braving snow, ice, and frigid temperatures during the winter and enjoying the scenery and sunshine during the more pleasant seasons. Mr. Coello emphasized safety, bicycle mechanics, and physical training which prepared the students to conquer almost any challenge a biker might face.

PROJECT ADVENTURE

DANCE

WINTER SPORTS PROGRAM

The Winter Sports Program, organized by Bob Cooley, is unique to Rowland Hall-St. Mark's. Instead of spending Friday afternoon exercising their brains, students exercised their limbs in the sport of their choice. Mr. Koetter and Mr. Gadette sponsored the bowling enthusiasts at Rancho Lanes—the RHSM students, that is. There were 300 participants this season, or did Mr. Koetter mean that that was his goal? Speaking of goalies—were we? Mr. Wortham and Mrs. Carey sponsored the hockey buffs and the ice skaters who gathered at Hygeia Ice Rink and swacked the puck or worked on their figures. And figures bring up another program. Mrs. Ammon led a number of students in aerobic dancing. Spies report that she then followed them to Crossroads Mall for lunch. Leading and following bring up the topic of Mr. Coello's bikers who trained on strenuous terrain such as that in Emigration Canyon to prepare for their June ride over the Bozeman Trail. The students claimed the ride up the canyon was a breeze, but the yearbook photographer had doubts. She also experienced doubts while photographing the roller skaters—after all she was on skates and feared being impaled on a 35 mm camera. The roller skaters seemed to enjoy moving not only to the rhythm of the music, but also to the vicinity of the snack bar. But then, a hard afternoon of roller skating required the pick-me-up of a snack. Mr. Fox, Mrs. Benns, Mrs. Rabin, and Mrs. Galland enjoyed the supervision and the participation in what probably reminded them of their birthday parties way back when. Mr. Liggett and Mrs. Maryon were reminded of who knows what during their sponsorship of the swim-gym program which involved many of our munchkins and some of the older lower schoolers who were excellent helpers. The swimmers and gymnasts slept well each Friday evening, as did the downhill and cross country skiers sponsored by Bob Cooley, et al. Skiing in general was a well supported sport at our school this year. Some of those riding Lewis Bros.' Stages will probably be part of our Rowmark Academy in the future. Certainly, the Winter Sports Program was a valuable part of the fine education RHSM provides the students.

"Foot for foot, The King's English is one of the best bookstores I've ever been in. The depth of their stock is amazing."

E. L. Doctorow
author of Ragtime,
Loon Lake and Book of Daniel

"The King's English is everything we meant when we used to say that bookstores were joyous places to browse in. It's one of an increasingly rare breed, and I love it."

Martha Lear
author of Heart Sounds

"The King's English is a great great bookstore!"

John Irving
author of The World According to Garp and
The Hotel New Hampshire
